

2004 Fall Conference
November 11–12, 2004
Broyhill Inn
Boone, North Carolina

Wednesday, November 10

- 4:00 Check-in for Program begins
6:00 Check-in for Program concludes

Thursday, November 11

- 8:00 Check-in for Program
8:45 Welcome
9:00 Warrantless Stops
John Rubin, Institute of Government
9:30 Presenting the Case for Suppression
Paul James, Asst. Public Defender
10:00 Challenging Search Warrants
William W. Gerrans
10:30 Break
10:45 Exceptions to the Warrant Requirement
Jeanette Doran Brooks, Institute of Government
11:30 An Update from the Office of Indigent Defense Services
Margaret Gressens, Office of Indigent Defense Services
12:15 Lunch
1:30 Language Barriers: The Law of Search and Seizure and the Non-English Speaking Client
Scott Holmes, Stubbs, Cole, Breedlove, Prentis & Biggs
2:15 Special Considerations for Juveniles
Eric Zogry, Asst. Public Defender
2:45 Break
3:00 A Review of the Fifth and Sixth Amendments
G. Alan DuBois, Asst. Federal Public Defender
3:45 Case Update
Daniel R. Pollitt, Asst. Appellate Defender
4:30 Adjourn

Friday, November 12

- 9:00 The Impact of Blakely v. Washington on North Carolina Structured Sentencing
Ben Dowling-Sendor, Asst. Appellate Defender
9:45 Legislative Update
John Rubin, Institute of Government
10:30 Break
10:45 Business Meeting
J. Robert Hufstader, Public Defender
11:15 The Ethics of Suppression: Investigation, Preparation and Client Relations
Robert H. Hale, Law Office of Robert H. Hale
Samuel J. Randall, Law Office of Samuel J. Randall
12:15 Adjourn